

Ideas About the Middle Ages

Read the following statements carefully. If a statement is true, write True after it. If a statement is false, write False after it. Then, in the space provided, write the reasons for your answer. For help, you can refer to pages 200–204 in your textbook.

1. The picture above shows Pope Leo III placing a jeweled crown on the head of Charlemagne. This event was an important turning point in European history.

---

---

---

2. Charlemagne's court at Aachen became an important center of learning.

---

---

---

3. After Charlemagne's death, the Vikings began trading and exchanging ideas with the Franks.

---

---

---

4. Feudalism arose as a way of fairly distributing land to everyone.

---

---

---